Pachira Pot Plants

The Money Tree for Homes and Offices

Florance Flora's Pachira pot plants, known as the money tree, pair glossy hand-shaped leaves with braided or single trunks for sustainable indoor décor.

Pachira pot plants, popularly known as the money tree, combine a sculptural trunk with a lush canopy of glossy, hand-shaped leaves. Available braided or single-stemmed, they are a favourite for homes, offices and gifting. Florance Flora supplies healthy, sustainably grown Pachira across India.
